CANDIDATE INFORMATION AND RECRUITMENT PRIVACY NOTICE

Community Engagement /Marketing Officer

We are pleased that you are interested in joining the team at Teachers' Credit Union.

To apply, please send your CV and covering letter via email to cathy.craig@teacherscreditunion.co.uk before close of business on Friday 24th July 2026. Alternatively, you can send via post to Teachers' Credit Union, 95 Finaghy Road South, Belfast, BT10 0BY, marked for the attention of C Craig.

Please note, CVs submitted without the requested covering letter will not be considered.

All applications for employment are considered strictly on the basis of merit.

Essential criteria are those necessary for the post to be performed to satisfactory standards. These form the minimum shortlisting criteria. Teachers' Credit Union reserve the right to enhance the shortlisting criteria in order to facilitate a manageable shortlist. Candidates will be shortlisted on the basis of the information advertised.

It is expected that interviews will take place during the week commencing 17th August 2026.

All communication in relation to this recruitment exercise will be via email. Please ensure you check your emails regularly, including spam/junk folders, for correspondence.

Teachers' Credit Union Ltd is an Equal Opportunities Employer. If you consider that you need a particular aid, facility or any additional assistance from us during the recruitment process, please contact us and we will do everything we can to accommodate any special requirements you may have.

We process personal data relating to those who apply for job vacancies with us. Personal data provided will not be retained any longer than is necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was gathered (please see attached recruitment privacy notice for full information)

If you have any questions, please email cathy.craig@teacherscreditunion.co.uk

We thank you for your interest and look forward to hearing from you.

history and any other data revealed during background screenings;
Your nationality and immigration status and information from related documents, such as your passport or other identification and immigration information;¹

A copy of your driving licence (If relevant to the position you are applying for);

How we collect the information

We collect personal data about candidates from the following sources:

- Data that you, the candidate submit via application forms, CVs, letters or other written material.
- NI Courts & Tribunal Service, from which we collect the following categories of data: Judgements & Bankruptcy search (for those carrying out Credit Union Non-Executive Director and Senior Management Functions).
- Vetting NI.
- From your named referees.
- Where the appointment is to a certification/senior management function/credit union non-executive director position your previous/current employer for a regulatory reference.

Why we collect the information and how we use it

We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes:

Fulfilling contract: We need to process your personal information to assess your skills, qualifications and suitability for the position to decide whether to enter into a contract with you.

Our legal duty: This basis is appropriate when we are processing personal data to comply with UK or Northern Ireland Law:

- for compliance with a legal obligation (e.g. our obligation to check that you are eligible to work in Northern Ireland)
- Keep records related to our hiring processes
- to undertake relevant criminal record checks as required by our regulatory and as permitted by law (for specific functions/roles only)

Legitimate interests A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information. But even then, it must not unfairly go against what is right and best for you. If we rely on our legitimate interest, we will tell you what that is.

Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for the position

Our legitimate interest: It is in the legitimate interests of the credit union to recruit individuals to roles and functions for its benefit.

Communicate with you about the recruitment process.

Our legitimate interest: To ensure we keep you updated on the process, we will contact you via your preferred method of communication, to ensure that correct instructions were given or taken due to the nature of our business and to quickly and accurately resolve any disputes.

Keep records related to our hiring processes.;

Our legitimate interest: To keep records related to the hiring process in case you wish to exercise any rights relating to your information, and quickly and accurately resolve any disputes.

¹ Candidates are required (by law or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide this information to us to enable us to verify your right to work and suitability for the position.

Having received your CV and covering letter OR your application form, we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the necessary requirements to be shortlisted for the role. If we decide to call you for an interview, we will use the information you provide to us at the interview to decide whether to offer you the position. If we decide to offer you the position, we will then take up references AND/OR carry out a criminal record AND/OR carry out ANY OTHER check before confirming your appointment.

In general, access to your personal data will be restricted to minimise the number of people in the credit union who need it in order to evaluate your application for employment, provide functions supporting our Recruiting and selection team e.g. external interviewers, or to whom we are compelled to provide it by applicable law.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

If you fail to provide personal information

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require a credit check or references for this role and you fail to provide us with relevant details, we will not be able to take your application further.

How we use special category data

We will use your special category data in the following ways:

- We will use information about your race or national or ethnic origin to establish if we require a work permit for you to be eligible to work for us.
- Data about your health or disability where it is relevant to your ability or availability to work or to a workplace accommodation

Information about criminal convictions

We will process information about criminal convictions in respect of the following roles only:

- We are required by the Prudential Regulation Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority to carry out criminal record checks for those carrying out Credit Union Non-Executive Director and Senior Management Functions.

We are required to carry out a criminal record check in order to satisfy ourselves that there is nothing in your criminal convictions history which makes you unsuitable for the role(s).

Where we do process criminal data, we will ensure that appropriate additional safeguards as required by Data Protection Regulations.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

How we may share the information and how secure is my information?

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal data with other parties, such as HR consultants, the Irish League of Credit Unions (ILCU)², insurers and professional advisers. All our third-party service providers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes unless they are deemed to be data controllers in their own right³. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will also be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal data with our regulators, the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) or the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) as required to comply with the law.

Data Retention Periods

We will retain your personal data for a period of 12 months after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you to the position. We retain your personal data for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. Once the retention period has expired, the respective data will be permanently deleted. If you require further information, please contact us.

If your application is successful, we will keep only the recruitment information that is necessary in relation to your employment. Information collected by us upon when employed by us is set out in our data protection privacy notice for Credit Union Personnel (which will be made available should you be successful).

If we wish to retain your personal data on file, on the basis that a further opportunity may arise in future and we may wish to consider you for that, we will write to you separately, seeking your consent to retain your personal data for a fixed period on that basis.

² The ILCU (a trade and representative body for credit unions in Ireland and Northern Ireland) provides professional and business support services such as HR to affiliated credit unions. We may disclose information in your application to authorised officers or employees of the ILCU for the purpose of the ILCU providing services to us

³ As a data controller, the organisations will be required to have provided you with a separate privacy notice setting out what it does with its data.

Your Rights in connection with your personal data are to:

To find out whether we hold any of your personal data and if we do to request access to that data that to be furnished a copy of that data. You are also entitled to request further information about the processing.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you rectified.
